CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1901.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

SIDNEY LUCAS' REVIVAL.

Sidney Lucas ran back to the sparkle of his past at Washington Park yesterday and gave a bright exhibition of one of his famous stretch runs. It was in the third race, a handicap at one and one-eighth miles for a purse of $1,400. He was little fancied by the talent owing to his rather poor general performance this year here, and it was also thought the hard track was against his chances. It looked at one time as if he had little or no chance to win, as he was last down the backstretch, but Sullivan moved up into the field with him just before entering the straightaway, and under a forceful ride he passed into the lead with a few bounds in the last eighth and thereafter the race was never in doubt. The Unknown, luxuriant of speed, led by a good margin to the run in, where he was joined by Malay, and the race looked to have resolved itself into a contest between them, when Sullivan brought Sidney Lucas along with a whirl and passed both easily. Gorfelen, cut off frequently, sulked on the far turn and would not run a little bit there after.

It would have taken a pretty good horse to beat Star Chamber yesterday, as the Dunne colt hid on his running clothes and made his field look cheap in the fifth race, a dash of one mile. J. Winkfield bided his time with the son of St. Elaise until about five and a half furlongs had been run when he gave him his head and in a jiffy he darted into the lead. He finally won at the end by three and a half lengths from Boney Boy, who beat the faint-hearted Scarlet Lily two for second place. Boney Boy's race, in the light of his recent drumming, was a striking performance and shows that he is a noble sprig of his daddy, the iron horse. Attmore was rank for six furlongs and then retired. Anna Bain favored with a running start in the sprint race, won a questionable victory over The Lady in the fast time of 1:13. Anna Bain got off flying a length and a half in front of her field and remained in the lead to the end, just lasting long enough to beat The Lady a neck on the post, with Montana a length away. The consistent Kingston filly could not overcome the two and a half lengths advantage gained by the winner at the start. Montana showed improvement and will be a hard horse to beat from now on at six furlongs.

The day's opener went to Pat Dunne's fast colt Menon, who fairly ran away from his field, winning as he pleased by three and a half lengths from Jeubert, who beat Hans Wagner a length and a half for second place. Jack Rattlin, who ran so good a race behind Abe Frank in the Quickstep stakes ran a dull race and went all to pieces in the last eighth.

The day was hot and sultry, but the weather had no effect in depleting the attendance, which was as large as the two preceding days. The sport was keenly interesting throughout.

THE WINDSOR MEETING.

A perplexing and troublesome issue is bound to come up in connection with the projected meeting at Windsor. Among the entries to the recently closed stakes appear the names of quite a number of horses that have been running at Newport and St. Louis and other unlicensed tracks and are consequently barred from running over the tracks governed by the rules of the Western Jockey Club. A great many horses are also entered whose owners have been scrupulously careful to avoid racing over unlicensed tracks and which are well engaged in the rich stakes yet to be decided over the Chicago tracks. It seems more than probable that there is danger of such horses losing their standing also if they race in association with the horses that have already incurred disability. It is not exactly a clear case, but it is one that the gentlemen who are to conduct the Windsor meeting, as well as the owners interested, should canvass carefully at once. The meeting being held in Canada—a foreign country—has a bearing on the case, but how much is yet to be clearly determined.

At its last meeting the Western Jockey Club promulgated the following:

"A meeting in Canada is recognized by the Western Jockey Club when held under the sanction of any turf authority which enforces the forfeit list and rulings of the Western Jockey Club, including the disqualifications of persons and horses for fraudulent practices."

That is the only thing that bears officially on the situation and each reader can interpret it for himself. It is regrettable that a doubt should arise prejudicial to the interests of the Windsor meeting, which is well thought of hereabouts, but it is here and must be considered.

THE YOUNG HANDICAP.

Weights for the Young Handicap, named in honor of the president of the Washington Park Club, and to be run next Saturday, were announced by Secretary Howard yesterday. Next to the Wheeler this is the most valuable handicap stake of the meeting, having $5,000 added, and naturally is keenly coveted by owners. As the weights are adjusted it is impossible to see anything but a big field in prospect as well as a truly great race. The weights are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The colors of James R. Keene are not likely to be seen again for some time, as James Rowe has almost decided to send all his stock to the farm to rest up for the fall season. It is possible that he will skip Saratoga and wait for the opening at Sheepshead Bay.

Jockey Cochran has been engaged to ride for Mr. W. C. Whitney next year at a reported salary of $12,000 and the customary fees for mounts.

M. I. K., Detroit, Mich. Egyptian Prince's post price last Monday in first race at Washington Park was 12 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Agnes Flash. Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Roehampton outclassed the field and appeared a sure winner throughout. Arden put up a very fast and game race and is a clever colt and steadily improving. He was much the best of the others. Humboldt broke so slowly as to be nearly left, but made up a lot of ground and wants a longer route to show at his best. Cresson's appearance was good, but he looked high and was undoubtedly short. He appeared dangerous on the far turn, but failed in the stretch. He will be heard from early and can do much better. Arden, show, out. Humboldt, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxes—Ethics. Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ethics, cleverly handled, moved up fast in the last quarter and won going away and at the weights was best. Scurry set a terrific pace and was a good horse in this race. Dolando, saved and far out of it on the backstretch, closed a big gap and was going strongly at the end. Eloim hardly classed but prefers soft going. Scratched—26578 Magnificent, 111. Ethics, show, out. Scurry, show, out. Dolando, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Montana—Lola A. Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Bonner broke running, but had the speed to hold the lead and won going away. Combrero ran fast and gamely and stays better with each race. His forte, however, is mud. Gay Boy, carried wide on the turn, finished fast. Andalusian displayed a good order of speed and ran in remarkably improved form. Whiskey King, off slowly and repeatedly shut off and taken back, closed ground in the stretch, but had scant chance with his bad jockey. Essene appeared somewhat outclassed but he was right there all the way. Carmald must be above the ordinary on her race today. 112; 26548 Bowell W., 115; 26420 Alibart, 115; 26546 White Owl, 112; 26546 Fentonix, 112; 26546 Laureta B II., 112; (26474) Pluto, 112. Winner—Br. c. by Duke of Montrose—Theora. Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. First Whip, easily best at the weights, began slowly and losing ground on the first turn commenced to move up on the backstretch and had his field beaten decisively a quarter from home. He was opening up in the last furlong. Decanter was driving for three-quarters and finished with a rush. Herbert was under a choking pull to the far turn and received a bad looking ride. Smith sat perfectly still when the winner passed him on the turn. Kamara did her utmost and ran her race at the weights. All Gold ran fast and gamely but succumbed to First Whip's challenge on the far turn. Latson received very bad handling. He was jumping on horses in his first half and was allowed to go wide on the stretch turn. He was a good horse in this race. Scratched—26268 Ten Candles, 125; 26443 Prince Richard, 102; 26425 Round Up, 87. Overweights—Decanter, 1 pound; Latson, 1. First Whip, show, 2 to 5. Decanter, show, 1 to 2. Herbert, show, 7 to 5.

and seemed a sure winner until in the last fifty yards. Man o'War was overhauling the leaders in the last sixteenth. White Owl lacked speed and is probably not above the average class. O'Hagen, off badly, closed a big gap and can beat this kind in mud. Lieschen showed a fine burst of speed early.

Winner—Br. f, by Kingston—Skadi.

Went to post at 5:00. At post 35 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Ondurdis broke fast and had clear sailing, was lucky and well handled and showed great improvement. McGrathiana Prince closed with a great rush at the end. Gosbel, tipped by this winner and quitting in the stretch, was evidently short. Thicket closed a gap. Ante Up had no chance with his rider. Rikki Tikki Tavi tired early. Connie ran well and may drop in first soon on a muddy track. Federalist was knocked out of the race at the start.
